

10.0 CONCLUSIONS

The HHRA report will include a conclusion section. This section will summarize the risk characterization results and the uncertainty analysis. A table will be presented in this section that summarizes all the risk and hazard estimates that exceed the target levels. This section will focus on identifying the receptors and pathways with the greatest estimates of risk and hazard, and the corresponding emissions sources and COPCs that significantly contribute to those risks and hazards.